OUR NEW FORMAT

We have had our Quad-Laser printer for nearly a year now. Because of software limitations we were unable to take advantage of its full capabilities for awhile. But now, as you can see, from the appearance of this MONITOR, this situation is changing. We are now employing the Graham Software's SC LASER PLUS program which is designed specifically to take advantage of the Quadram laser printer's capabilities. We are now able to get much more copy in a MONITOR, and it should be easier for you to read. The print is also quite suitable for typesetting books and informational pamphlets and packets.

TRIALS AND TRIBULATIONS!

My David Ebaugh file temporarily vanished. This delayed my completion of the newsletter until my return from North Dakota. Holly and Rebecca, my diligent secretaries relocated it and it was awaiting my return to Detroit. Unfortunately, I returned from North Dakota with a virus that included strep throat and "walking" pneumonia. My stamina level has been low, precluding serious concentration and work on the newsletter.

IS DAVID EBAUGH A NEW AGER?

David Ebaugh is a Bible teacher who is popular in certain areas of the Ohio Valley; Baltimore, Maryland; Pennsylvania; and the Pacific Northwest. I have encountered people suffering from a great deal of spiritual confusion because of Ebaugh's cleverly worded teachings. He very "subtly" calls his class "New Age Bible Teachings." But, he has recently insisted he is not a "New Ager" - at least not in the sense of what he calls "the World's New Age Movement."

Is this correct? Is David Ebaugh a misunderstood Christian using old-time Christian terminology that the New Agers' have lately appropriated? Or, is David Ebaugh a wolf in very poor sheep's clothing? After studying Ebaugh's teachings, I conclude that they are fully "New Age" in every sense of the word. Both his theology and his political agenda are classical New Age - teachings that nobody at Lucis Trust would mourn over. The evidence, however, strongly suggests that Ebaugh is a full-fledged New Ager, both in terms of his theology and his political stance.

The goals of the New Age Movement are (1) a New World Order; (2) a New World Religion; and (3) a New Messiah - one they cheerfully admit is NOT Jesus.

Ebaugh meets every one of the above criteria - and with far less subtlety than many he would characterize as part of "the world's New Age Movement."

Ebaugh is also publicly part of the Manifest Sons of God Movement. This is a Movement I briefly discussed in A PLANNED DECEPTION. I learned of the existence of that group from a New Age report with the somewhat "unassuming title" of "AN EVOLUTIONARY BASIS FOR THE REAPPEARANCE OF THE CHRIST AND HIS EXECUTIVES THE MASTERS OF WISDOM."

The author, an associate Unity pastor at Unity's Founder's Church, Unity on the Plaza, Kansas City, Missouri, was inspired to write this report about how many divergent elements were coming together to aid in the "reappearance" of "Maitreya the Christ." Far and away, the most interesting part of his report dealt with what he termed "Neo-Pentecostals." The more proper name for that Movement was "Sonship" or "Overcomers" or "Manifest Sons of God." Their message is also sometimes known as a "Kingdom Message." They have formed some very successful and ungodly alliances in the past few years with the positive confession movement and the Dominion Theology movement of Rushdoony and Gary North.

The "new gospel" of the Manifest Sons of God is the same as that of the New Age Movement - that the Second Coming of Christ is us becoming Christ! Whether it is called "The Externalisation of the Hierarchy" (Lucis Trust), "the Manifestation of the Sons of God" (Lucis Trust, Manifest Sons of God), or "the Christification of Matter" (Chardin, et al), it all refers to the same expectation in the New Age Movement - that we will all become "God-conscious" and "realize our own divinity."

Ebaugh arises out of that Manifest Sons of God Movement, but his talk is more blatantly New Age than even many of the others in that Movement.

EBAUGH'S PERSONAL BACKGROUND

David Ebaugh is married and a grandfather. His literature says he is an electronic engineer by trade. He claims training from many sources including the U.S. Navy, University of Wisconsin, Purdue University, University of New York, University of Illinois. His diploma came from the Institute of Electrical and Electronic Engineers in New York City. He claims he made "significant inventions in typewriters for IBM." He says he has been engaged exclusively in Bible teaching. He operates the David Ebaugh Bible School. According to Ebaugh's newsletter, this is mainly a mail-order operation.

Ministry emphasis

Ebaugh says his ministry deals with the investigation of "1) SPIRIT, SOUL, BODY, 2.) NAMES OF GOD, 3.) LAW OR GRACE, 4.) REVELATION PROPHECY," and "5.) IMMORTALITY."

He frankly admits this is an effort "to produce attitude changes that prepare the student for the manifestation of the SONS OF GOD."

His ministry circulates tape cassettes from live teaching sessions in Hershey, Pennsylvania; Baltimore, Maryland; Westchester; and Washington, D.C.

Ebaugh has expressed praise for Pat Robertson in past newsletters. This contrasts sharply with his treatment of the majority of evangelical and fundamentalist preachers whom he claims to excel in revelation knowledge.

A Different gospel?

Paul gives a solemn warning:

"I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you, than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed."

Ironically, Ebaugh uses Paul to justify the teaching of another gospel. Although in the Bible we see that Paul and Peter were supportive of each other's work and knew that each had, in his turn, been called by God and was being obedient to that calling, Ebaugh hints that there may have been unresolved differences between the two. He says of the gospel we have received:

"The present AGE contains a mixture gospel. It is called the 'gospel of the circumcision.' It is a mixture of law and grace. ... The NEW AGE will not contain the 'gospel of the circumcision.'

And of the NEW GOSPEL, Ebaugh says we have coming for the "New Age," he says:

"Paul's gospel of the UNcircumcision will be restored, and it will be the message of the NEW AGE. It will be a pure GRACE message. It will not contain a mixture of LAW and GRACE. ... Peter's gospel of the circumcision will come to disuse in the NEW AGE. NEW AGE churches will praise our God for what JESUS DID, not what WE DO (or don't do)." MONARCH (October/November, 1986) (emphasis in original.)

Three salvations?

Ebaugh teaches that there are separate salvations for the soul, the spirit, and the body. According to David Ebaugh, our spirit is saved by faith, our soul is saved by faith and works, and our body is saved by hope. Ebaugh says that faith in Jesus saves our spirits only!

Don't Praise Jesus — Praise Yourself!

Ebaugh's same October 1983 Monarch clearly denies Jesus is the Christ. Moreover, he snidely criticizes those who praise Jesus!

"...there is a difference between the words 'Jesus' and 'Christ.' Jesus describes a man who was born of the virgin Mary. Christ describes the anointing that came from God onto the man Jesus. But the reason the distinction is so very important to note is because that same anointing is prophesied to come upon the BODY OF CHRIST, a many membered group, of which you and I are a part.

Neither THE AQUARIAN GOSPEL, Benjamin Creme, nor Pierre Teilhard de Chardin could have said it much better than that!

A student wrote Ebaugh to praise Jesus. Ebaugh's answer to him is further suggests his New Age belief that Jesus is not the Christ:

"Q. Praise God! What a wonderful savior Jesus is.

"A. Without being disrespectful, please allow me to point out that scripture uses the word Christ, not Jesus. As long as you use the words Jesus and Christ for the same meaning, you will miss knowing the many wonderful plans that GOD has made for the Body of Christ in the future. You will relate many scriptures that are about the future and the Body of Christ, mistakenly to the past, thinking that Jesus did it. ... The anointing (Christ) ELOAH came from the Godhead upon Jesus and that made him JESUS CHRIST (the Messiah).

Ebaugh compounds the heresy by saying to the next questioner:

"Q. I'm beginning to see that you are emphasizing (sic) the power of the Christ, aren't you?

"A. In this day and age we need to see what will be expected from the Body of Christ and quit relegating it to Jesus. The word ELOAH in Psalm 110:1 refers to Christ. As the Christ (anointing) ELOAH came upon Jesus, it refers to Jesus Christ. As the Christ (anointing) ELOAH will come upon the many mem-bered body - it refers to the Body of Christ. So it also has an application for the present as well. Structured Christianity has not yet noticed these differences, so it has been all relegated to the past.

Ebaugh teaches we have different gods for different ages!

David Ebaugh teaches his students that all gods descend from a god he calls "El Elyon." It is El Elyon, Ebaugh maintains who is the Most High God, the Possessor of Heaven and Earth. Melchisedec, he says, is a priest of El Elyon. This is important, because Ebaugh, like millions of New Agers and other cults, claims to be part of the "Order of Melchisedec." French scientist, Jacques Vallee writing in his 1979 book, MESSENGERS OF DECEPTION found this to be a common characteristic of UFO observers and occult groups around the globe.

Reporting to El Elyon, Ebaugh continues, is the plural godhead, "Elohim." It is the Elohim, he says, that is the "Creator God." We learn something very surprising and "unique" from Ebaugh - that the Elohim is androgynous (containing both male and female)! If this sounds familiar, it should. Every New Age group out there teaches the androgynous nature of God!

The Elohim is further divided into three parts, according to Ebaugh: Yahweh, El Shaddai and Eloah.

The teachings regarding Yahweh or Jehovah are some of Ebaugh's most astonishing. YHWH is, Ebaugh says, the Tetragrammaton for Jehovah or Adonai (Father). Jehovah is, he says, the masculine god who came 422 years after El Shaddai. It was El Shaddai, he said, who formed the Levitical priesthood of Aaron. More astounding still, he says he says "Masoretic corruption ADONI (Lord Baal) for YAHWEH."

Now for Ebaugh's teachings regarding Jehovah's supposed predecessor, El Shaddai. El Elyon was, he said, the "Most High God." El Shaddai is, he continues "God Almighty". The women's lib movement will be very happy to learn that this god is "large breasted, Mother, feminine and nourisher." That should forever do away with women's lib and wicce (witchcraft) organizations arguments about the need to do away with patriarchal religions! El Shaddai and not Jehovah, according to Ebaugh, was the god of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. In addition, the Arab community should be delighted to learn El Shaddai is Assyrian!

Ebaugh's EL SHADDAI - A Feminine God?

"Q. Speaking of EL SHADDAI, my wife said that she had a glory spell when she realized that the Godhead contained a feminine part. For some reason it made her feel like a whole person."

"A. Many women have been made to feel that they were deficient because they were female. I believe that is because religions have taught an unbalanced reliance on YAHWEH and have operated in virtual ignorance of EL SHADDAI." (October 1983 MONARCH)

EBAUGH TEACHES THE CHRIST IS AN ANOINTING AND A FORCE - NOT A MAN!

Now for "Eloah". Eloah is the "Lord, Messiah, and Christ." It was Eloah, says Ebaugh, which was the "Creative force" and "anointing, ghost, Spirit which came upon the man Jesus."

Ebaugh needs to read 1 John 4:3 which reads:

"And every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world."

Clearly, Ebaugh demonstrates the spirit of antichrist with as much vigor as that shown by Benjamin Creme and Alice Bailey!

DAVID EBAUGH DENIES JESUS IS THE ONLY CHRIST!

David Ebaugh's October 1983 MONARCH contains contradictory statements concerning Jesus. On page 1 he makes a statement no Christian can legitimately challenge:

"Now look: salvation does not depend on what you believe regarding the rapture or tribulation. Salvation has to do with believing on Jesus Christ and following Him.

This sounds commendable, but the remaining context of the David Ebaugh Bible School makes it clear that Ebaugh is speaking of a very different Jesus with a very different gospel.

"Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ. He is antichrist that denieth the Father and the Son." 1 John 2:22.

Note carefully that Ebaugh does deny Christ - just as his foregoing teachings deny the Father. This is no different nor better than what Ebaugh calls "The World's New Age Movement" leaders denying Christ:

"Q. Your new lesson on the Names of GOD is the best Bible blessing that I have ever had. I now honestly believe that I understand more about GOD than I ever did. But how about Jesus Christ? How does He fit into the neat package you have come up with?

"A. Your question has several parts. In the first place, I did not come up with the neat package. Old books, Bible encyclopedias and concordances are full of it. However, I do admit that I have not seen it put together as I was directed to do, though I have later seen books about the Names of GOD. The next answer is a surprise to many people, but there is a difference between the words 'Jesus' and 'Christ.' Jesus describes a man who was born of the virgin Mary. Christ describes the anointing that came from God onto the man Jesus. But the reason the distinction is so very important to note is because that same anointing is prophesied to come upon the BODY OF CHRIST, a many membered group, of which you and I are a part." MONARCH Special large edition October 1983.

FEAST OF TABERNACLES

Jesus said on the cross "It is finished." Ebaugh, like other Manifest Sons of God teachers maintains however that all was not finished. According to Ebaugh neither the Feast of Tabernacles nor the Year of Jubilee has been fulfilled. In his three stages of salvation, he says:

"Jesus saved our spirit at Passover. The Holy Spirit began saving our soul at Pentecost. Now we're expecting the Father to inhabit our bodies at the Feast of Tabernacles."

This is the equivalent to what Alice Bailey says is the "Externalisation of the Hierarchy." She alternatively calls this the "manifestation of the Sons of God" in her book THE EXTERNALISATION OF THE HIERARCHY.

I learned of the New Age interest in evangelical practice of the Year of Jubilee and the Feast of Tabernacles from a New Age report with the rather unassuming title of "An Evolutionary Basis for the Reappearance of the Christ and his Executives, the Masters of Wisdom." In it the writer, Ernest Ramsey, a Unity minister, explained that the Neo-Pentecostal (translate Manifest Sons of God; Sonship; Overcomers, etc.) equivalent of the Age of Aquarius was the Feast of Tabernacles and Year of Jubilee. The Year of Jubilee is, of course, the global redistribution of wealth our New Age, socialist, and Social Credit Movement "friends" are planning for us.

The same October 1983 back issue of Ebaugh's MONARCH deals extensively with the Feast of Tabernacles.

Ebaugh's version of the Feast of Tabernacles appears to parallel both the mystical experience of the New Agers and their long awaited New World Religion as well. For, as Ebaugh says, the Feast of Tabernacles has "universal appeal." It also has an "air of secrecy," he says.

It is conceivable that the Feast of Tabernacles, as well as the Year of Jubilee could also be used to justify the "Aquarian Age" redistribution of wealth. Ebaugh says:

"Another thing that sets Tabernacles apart is the abundance enjoyed during this feast. It's the fall harvest. ... Whereas at Passover and Pentecost there was only enough for the household, at Tabernacles there was plenty for all; the servants [sic], the poor, the stranger, all could partake.

Lucifer - Not Satan?

"Lucifer is not Satan. There are no scriptures in the Bible that say he is." So says David Ebaugh in his April, 1985 MONARCH newsletter.

One might wonder who other than Lucifer himself would have a vested interest in defending Lucifer? Somebody listening to a spirit other than the Holy Spirit might. The New Agers certainly do. Lucis Publishing Company was formerly known as Lucifer Publishing Company. The Theosophical Society's magazine was originally called "Lucifer."

This is a most interesting thrust, coming especially as it is at a time when the New Age Movement seeks worldwide worship of Lucifer!

Ebaugh quotes the Amplified Bible and Bill Britton in support of his thesis that Lucifer is not Satan.

Strong's Concordance cites the Chaldean word HEYLEL (hay-lale') as being the word from which the English translation was derived. That translates as "the morning-star - lucifer."

Orthodox theologians generally correlate Isaiah 14:12 with Jesus' remarks cited in Luke 10:18:

"How art thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning!" Isaiah 14:12

"I beheld Satan as lightning fall from heaven." (Luke 10:18)

I believe this remark of Jesus addresses another theological error that holds that Satan is still in heaven. This is taken from the Revelation prophecies of war in heaven. I believe John the Revelator was shown a panoramic view of both what had transpired and what was to come and he was shown the event Jesus also spoke of - of Satan and the rebellious host of 1/3 the angels being cast from heaven.

"MELCHISEDEC ORDER" DECREE - AN OCCULT HALLMARK

French scientist and author Jacques Vallee' noted the similarity of teachings between those claiming UFO contacts and other mind-altering experiences and hypnosis. All modern agencies he found talking about the Melchizedek (same as "Melchisedec" order were talking, he said, of a new world order, a new world monetary system, and a new messiah.

Of his "New World Religion," Ebaugh says:

"THE NEW RELIGION (EL ELYON) will lead humanity to peace, following Jesus, the High Priest after the order of Melchisedec. It will require a separation from old religious orders."

In turns very much reminiscent of New Age Movement rationales for a New World Religion, Ebaugh explains:

"Rejection of Judaism, Roman Catholicism and Protestantism on the part of contemporary society has been mostly because of the failure of the established religions to bring significant social reforms, especially, peace to men." (punctuation maintained as in original)

NAMES OF GOD

In surely one of the more interesting experiences ever claimed by a modern religious figure, Ebaugh says that "On November 6, 1981 a heavenly host appeared in the sky over Baltimore, Maryland with the command to teach the differences between the Names of God."

Not since the angelic host appeared over Bethlehem to herald the birth of Christ has since a star-studded spectacular occurred, if Ebaugh is to be believed. As I understand it the "host of heaven" was not to appear until Christ's second coming!

What did Ebaugh's "host of heaven" appear to announce. They appeared to announce we will have a different name for God, with a different facet of

God. Further, we are to have a very new and different "New World Religion."

While Yahweh (Jehovah) was, Ebaugh says the God of the three religions of Judaism, Protestantism and Roman Catholicism, Yahweh is soon to be a "has been." El Elyon is, he continues, the God of the "New Religion."

While the Bible says "I am the Lord, I change not," Ebaugh says, by way of contradiction that "There is as much difference between the natures of GOD named YAHWEH and EL ELYON as there has been between JUDAISM and CHRISTIANITY." (Emphasis is Ebaugh's)

NEW WORLD RELIGION?

David Ebaugh clearly preaches the coming of a New World Religion that radically differs from Christianity:

"Q. A preacher told me that you should never had said that the GOD of the NEW RELIGION is EL ELYON. He said it would have been better to have said, 'The GOD of the NEW MOVE is EL ELYON.' The idea is that Christianity could embrace [sic, should probably be "embrace"] the idea of a NEW MOVE but the idea of a NEW RELIGION is repulsive.

"A. I agree. I gave much concern to what you said.

"The only answer I can find right now is that the message is for the whole world. People who are dedicated to a strongly structured Christianity won't be able to embrace much of it anyway. So, perhaps if they are offended at the term NEW RELIGION, then it could be best for them to hear it right away — and not try to cover it up.

NO RAPTURE?

While Christians often disagree upon the timing of the events of 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, they usually do agree that those events will take place. That passage reads:

"But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him. For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive AND remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep. For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout with the voice of the archangel, and the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: Then we which are alive AND remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. Wherefore comfort one another with these words.

Ebaugh removes that comfort with these words:

"To me, the beauty of the NEW AGE Bible study shows that our GOD has plans for a lot better NEW AGE here on this EARTH than is the PRESENT AGE in which we have to live. But, to some erroneous minds, the idea of a NEW AGE HERE ON EARTH ruins their hope of a so called 'rapture' to HEAVEN. Those people don't want to think of a NEW AGE here on EARTH. Because of the tribulation of the END TIMES they want to find a fire escape to HEAVEN. ... If Christians start looking for the BIBLE'S NEW AGE, then many of them will stop looking for the erroneous 'rapture.' ... The idea of being 'raptured' up to HEAVEN is incompatible with the idea, of ruling and reigning here on EARTH.

David Ebaugh, I could not have said it better myself! The idea of being 'raptured' up to heaven is incompatible with the idea of ruling and reigning here on earth! Of course, with people the likes of David Ebaugh around, it is also quite conceivable that we shall not avoid all tribulation.

One can argue pre-trib, mid-trib, and post-trib and find apparent Biblical support for the position. But when one gets into amillennial and post-millennial positions, such as those taken by Ebaugh, he is subscribing to the same belief structure as that of the New Agers, whether one knows it or not. This position strips God of sovereignty and instead vests it in mankind. Indeed, what New Agers and Manifest Sons of God people and Post-millennialists all have in common is a teaching that WE — not God — bring in the kingdom. And since God has good friends like David Ebaugh saying that what they are doing is ushering in "God's New Age" — not "The World's New Age," why does God need enemies. Such "friends" are stealing God's kingship in the name of the Lord! Who should we believe, David Ebaugh or the Apostle Paul. I opt for the Apostle Paul! I am certain that God does as well!

EBAUGH TEACHES PROGRESSIVE REVELATION

The New Agers teach the doctrine of constant evolution or "progressive revelation." The "Christianized" version of this is called "Process Theology" in liberal Protestant and Catholic churches.

Like the New Agers, Ebaugh teaches a form of progressive revelation. One example of this appears in his October 1983 MONARCH. Ebaugh, in this case, used an article entitled "NEHUSHTAN." This is the Hebrew word for the brazen serpent God ordered Moses to make during one of the water crises in the 40 years Israel wandered in the wilderness. After the people of God murmured, an angry God sent fiery serpents as punishment. Many died. After the chastened Israelites begged God for forgiveness, God instructed Moses to shape a brass serpent and put it on a pole. Those with snake bites were to look at the snake on the pole to live. Ebaugh rightfully says that this foreshadowed Jesus. However, he uses the later idolatry of Israelites in worshipping this brass serpent to subtly justify his doctrines of progressive revelation:

"We are in a difficult place because it is the people God has most currently given new revelation to that usually have the hardest time accepting further truth. History bears this out. Nearly every fifty years since Luther a new move of God has appeared and has been persecuted by the move before it."

Even more significantly, he appears to use such teachings to ridicule the cross. Paul said, "to them who perish, the teaching of the cross is foolishness." We were told to glory in the cross. And yet, Ebaugh says the idolatrous actions of the Israelites in worshipping the Moses-fashioned serpent constituted worshipping a past move of God. "A Nehushtan is a past move of God that has become an idol," he concludes. To illustrate the point, he has one of his cute cartoon figures kneeling before a cross. Ebaugh says:

"If you know someone who worships Jesus on the cross, then it is possible for the cross to become a NEHUSHTAN for that person."

In conclusion, Ebaugh teaches New Age Movement doctrines of progressive revelation, a Christ other than Jesus, multiple gods other than the Trinity, and Human Potential concepts of "consciousness." Additionally, he teaches the coming of a New World Religion and a New World Order - this adds up to one thing and one thing only - New Age! It is fully "New Age" - both in the sense of "The World's New Age Movement" and the New Age Movement of the apostasy that has so permeated Christendom today.

The following is a tape made by Eustace Mullins and circulated in various Identity circles about the country. I will have my reply to this in next month's MONITOR. Suffice it to say, I was most pleasantly surprised to learn that I make "vast amounts of money". Friends who brought me a copy of this article reprinted in T. Tupper Saussy's MAIN STREET JOURNAL said they actually came to ask me for a loan because Eustace Mullins said I made more money a year than the $375,000 he claims is the budget of Lucis Trust! If Mullins gets washed up in New Age and political circles, he has a great career facing him in comedy!

Until I confronted Eustace

Mullins with his obvious New Age expressions of belief, he was praising my books. No doubt he was not praising them as a sincere expression of belief, but because he knew the Jewish community was watching him like a hawk, particularly after his 1984 primer for the Aryan Nations. By praising me, he could both lull Christians to sleep on the extreme anti-Christ nature of his materials and have Jews brand my warnings against the New Age Movement as another form of anti-Semitism. In a special hard-bound presentation copy Eustace Mullins sent to a fan in Vancouver, he included the following typed note:

"There is considerable information on Canada in THE WORLD ORDER. Also referenced Stephen Knight's Brotherhood and Constance Cumbey's excellent and timely works. Bible prophecy will be taken up in a forthcoming volume. There was not enough room for it in this book."

We just learned that Everett Sileven is also mailing out Eustace Mullins' tapes attacking me. Additionally, Sileven who has been speaking at CAUSA conventions is having Mullins to his church to speak at his conference. The tapes Sileven is circulating are those of the foregoing transcript. In them Mullins said that his only mention of the Aquarian Age had been a negative one and denying the existence of the New Age Movement. Sileven and I have long had differences over his working the Moonies and the Identity Movement. Sileven Sez newsletter asks the question "Is Constance Cumbey a hoax?" He offers Mullins' tape and calls it "well-documented." Evidently, Everett Sileven is becoming more and not less pronouncedly militant about both his Unification church alliances and anti-Semitic activities. This is highly unfortunate. At one time, I considered Pastor Sileven to be a friend.

Eustace Mullins

THE BIG LIE TECHNIQUE OF CONSTANCE CUMBEY

by Eustace Mullins

"When a flea or mosquito bites a human, it is more than an irritant; there is the danger of infection, such as yellow fever, bubonic plague, or AIDS. The human parasite can be just as dangerous to your health. One year ago, under the auspices of Tupper Saussy, I made my first public appearance in many years. During the ensuing twelve months, I have reached millions of people with radio, TV and personal appearances."

"The inevitable reaction came from the sewers of power. Virulent counterattacks were made by sttoges, the principal vehicle being one Constance Cumbey, a curious, nibbling type of creature. I had never heard of her, and when I read her books, I found them a strange mixture of nonsense, fantasy, delusion, and deliberate misrepresentation of facts."

"PLANNED DECEPTION (an apt title for any Cumbey work), 1985, contains an episode worthy of a Stephen King horror movie. On page 4, Cumbey says that when she moved out of a building, THE ELEVATOR STOPPED RUNNING! Most of her writing attains this level, but never surpasses it."

"On page 95, Cumbey resolves that Henry Ford is an 'occultist' because he waws a friend of Thomas Edison, whom she claims was a Theosophist. In fact, Ford and Edison, both being very busy men, spent only a few hours together in their entire lives, Edison apparently devoting this brief period, according to Cumbey, in indoctrinating Ford with Theosophy."

"Cumbey herself seems to be an 'occultist,' because she believes in 'hidden meanings.' She denounced my mentor, Ezra Pound, as a Theosophist, and when I told her that as Pound's authorized biographer, I had studied all his works and never found anything promoting Theosophy, she declared very earnestly, 'Oh, it's in there; you have to look for it.'"

"In fact, Pound often joked to me about the Theosophists, and what he termed their 'spooks.' He spent years trying to dissuade William Butler Yeats from his interests in magic."

"The Cumbey method is revealed on page 154 of PLANNED DECEPTION. she became involved in a long argument with her piano tuner about Middle C, and because he disagreed with her, she concluded he was a 'New Ager.'"

"Cumbey's income comes from promoting terror of what she calls the 'New Age Movement,' on which she has taken out a patent, it seems. CHRISTIANITY TODAY says that the New Age movement exists only in Cumbey's head. This dire threat to humanity apparently is centered in two personages: Benjamin Creme and Alice Bailey. In 35 years of research into the hidden powers which rule our world, I never encountered either name."

"It appears that Creme and Bailey are obscure dilettantes from the Theosophical Society (5,000 members) who operate through an outfit called the Lucis Trust. The 1987 Encyclopaedia of Associations reports that the Lucis Trust has an annual budget of $375,000, indicating that Lucis is certainly one of the most economical organizations ever to wield total world power. Cumbey makes more than that by writing and speaking about it. She has sold vast numbers of her book HIDDEN DANGERS OF THE RAINBOW, which 'exposes' the world power of Bailey and Creme."

"Most of the 'hidden dangers' which Cumbey writes about remain hidden despite her 'courageous' expose'. On page 33, she says, 'Ms [Marilyn] Ferguson had described the Movement as being so large that it had kept me awake worrying several nights.' Fortunately, the fate of civilization requires no more than a few sleepless nights; Cumbey is again sleeping well."

"On page 104 of HIDDEN DANGERS, she positively identifies Alice Bailey as the high priestess of the New Age Movement, and goes on for many pages denouncing the New Age as a Nazi movement, with Bailey as the principal propagandist for Nazi themes. Apparently, she has never read Alice Bailey's books."

"In her principal work, BETWEEN WAR AND PEACE, published in 1942 by Lucis Trust, Alice Bailey devotes many pages to frenetic denunciation of Hitler and the entire Nazi movement. She defines them as totally evil, enslavers of the human race, and representing the forces of evil. In fact, Bailey's book espouses many of the same causes which Cumbey promotes: interracial understanding, goodwill among mankind, and brotherhood. Alice Bailey sent out 200,000 copies of her work, the Function of the New Group, which calls for eradication of racial and class hatreds, promotion of world brotherhood and goodwill. Bailey demands that her NEW GROUP OF WORLD SERVERS eradicate racial hatreds and religious differences. Bailey's frenetic anti-Nazism and her continuous denunciations of Hitler would seem to disqualify her from the title which Cumbey has bestowed on her — 'the high priestess of Nazism.' One can only wonder whether Cumbey actually does any research into her subject matter."

"Ever conscious of money, Cumbey sends out continuous signals to the Zionist propagandists and hatemongers that she is with them. Her again, she engages in contradiction. Her main thrust is her attack on the Theosophists, without realizing what she is doing. Spence's definitive work, THE ENCYCLOPAEDIA OF OCCULT, has this definition of KABBALA:

'A Hebrew and Jewish system based on the Kabbala.' Another definitive work, THE OCCULT IN AMERICA, by Howard Kerr, University of Illinois, 1983, does not mention Creme; Bailey is mentioned EN PASSANT on page 30 with no further comment. Cumbey does not mention these definitive works in her bibliography."

"We now come to Cumbey's essay in criminal libel — her newsletter, NEW AGE MONITOR, August 1986, in which she lies with malicious intent to injure a Christian. She refused to send me a copy, and as she only has 175 subscribers, it took me several months to locate a copy of this issue in which she libels me."

"Its first sentence identifies Eustace Mullins as 'a major propagandist for the Christian Identity movement.' This is LIE NO. 1. In the millions of words I have published, I have never written anything promoting Christian Identity, as I have never researched it and do not know that much about it. LIE NO. 2: Cumbey claims that 'spokesmen for others told me Mullins plainly lied to them,' with no names given. LIE NO. 3: Cumbey states 'Mullins openly favors the Aquarian Age.' The fact is that in 35 years, I made only one brief reference to the Aquarian Age, which was not 'favorable.' LIE NO. 4: Cumbey says that I 'fervently desire a New World Order.' LIE NO. 5: Because she is incapable of doing serious research, Cumbey concludes that my revelations about the present world order identify me as an insider with this world order. She is too simple to understand that I have researched for 35 years into the ramifications of the present world order. LIE NO. 6: She refers to Ezra Pound as a 'lifelong Theosophist' because of thie 'hidden meanings' which she found in his work, and which remain hidden to Pound scholars. LIE NO. 7: She refers to Eustace Mullins' 'extreme occultist.' I have written millions of words about banking and politics, and in three current bestselling books, there is no reference to occultism. LIE NO. 8: Cumbey states that I openly advocate a cashless system. I have never written one word advocating a cashless system; in all of my work, I defend personal funds and the right to spend them. LIE NO. 9: Cumbey refers to 'Mullins' own occult connections,' which exist only in her delusions. I have never belonged to any occult organization."

"Cumbey, an avaricious money-grubber, takes advantage of the credulous dupes who buy her books and tapes and attend her lectures. If people want delusions, they pay for delusions. For 35 years, I have given my readers documented facts, and no one has ever challenged my veracity. Now Cumbey commits criminal malicious libel, which she will find is an expensive prank."

"Cumbey's skillful coverup of the real danger is revealed by her warning that the New Age Movement is the peril facing mankind, while at the same time she conceals from her dupes that the 'New Age' is the slogan of Freemasonry. She tells her audiences that the Masons have been 'persecuted' because of 'disinformation.' When her readers wrote to inquire if she knew that the Scottish Rite of Freemasonry has continually published a magazine entitled NEW AGE since 1904, she refused to answer them."

"Many Masonic groups title their magazines THE NEW AGE, including the important Masonic group in Washington, D.C. The Masons tell their initiates that the goal of Freemasonry is to rebuild King Solomon's Temple, as an oriental rite, and there to amass all the treasures of the world, while reducing all people of the world to slavery through their revolutionary activities. NEW AGE MAGAZINE of the Washington Masons has on the cover the symbolic triangle with the words 'Liberty, Equality, and Fraternity' — buzzwords of the bloody French revolution and enforced socialism. Tell us, dear Connie, as you attack 'New Agers,' why do you conceal this information?"

PAT ROBERTSON

Some readers may be offended by my scrutiny of television talk-show host, would-be United States president Pat Robertson. Since Pat Robertson has never held public office this scrutiny is absolutely essential. He has no voting record whereby the potential supporter/voter can check his consistency. Therefore, all that remains are his words and his actions. We have found many disturbing evidences that he has followed a course of being "all things to all people." When he is called on his inconsistencies, he will usually point to a positive declaration he made on a matter at a given time, ignoring the numerous evidences of contrary stands he has taken. If these remarks were put on trial, and the contrary positions were pointed out, it would be the equivalent of "impeaching the witness" in legal parlance. The judge will instruct a jury that if they found a witness to be successfully impeached, that goes to the issue of credibility and they are free to disregard any or all of that witness' testimony.

A CRYSTAL CONNECTION?

Pat Robertson graphically described the decor and arrangement of his old chapel on page 214 of his autobiography, SHOUT IT FROM THE ROOFTOPS:

"Located just to the right of the front entrance, the chapel was alive with symbolic meaning. Everything in the room forced attention heavenward. A hand-carved cross was suspended in the middle of the room over an uncut boulder of white crystal rock. There was no pulpit, only three concentric rows of circular benches ringing the central point so that all who entered would know that Christ was the center, the rock upon which CBN rested."

Again, the crystal boulder is mentioned on the second to last page (254) of Robertson's book. The reference reminds one of shades of HOLY BLOOD, HOLY GRAIL:

"Late that evening, I sat alone in the quiet prayer chapel. My eyes moved from the dark red carpet to the uncut crystal boulder in the center of the room, to the Bible that lay on top of it, and on up to the suspended wooden cross. The door leading out to the lobby was closed, and I felt the presence of the Holy Spirit permeate every corner of the room. ... I slipped off the circular bench and knelt before the big white and gray rock whose thousands of facets gently sparkled, reflecting the soft light from the ceiling. Over my head was the cross, and directly in front of me was the open Bible."

SIGNIFICANCE OF CRYSTALS IN OCCULT

A recent New Age book, THE

CRYSTAL CONNECTION: A Guidebook for Personal and Planetary Ascension by Randall N. Baer and Vicki Baer (New York: Harper & Row, 1986) introduces the subject (page 3) by saying:

"Crystallinity is the code of creation. The foundational essence and structure of all manifestation is its crystalline ordering, which spans all of existence, from the subatomic microcosmic levels to the megadimensional macrocosmic levels of reality. The precise exactitude of essence and form inherent in each energetic unit throughout the Universal Mind derives from, and is sustained by, causal code-patterns of Light. These code patterns of Intelligence precipitate as crystallization structures as they are extended into the expanses of creation, therein functioning as templates of highly ordered stability through which their imprinted Light-blueprint is enacted in manifestation. The entire omniverse is founded and sustained by a network of interdimensionally interconnected crystalline code-patterns that function as the fundamental coordinating blueprints for all vibrational interactions throughout the Universal Mind. This 'all-encompassing network is termed, the Universal Energy Network (UEN)."

"The uncut crystal is the symbol and talisman of those in the metaphysical movement. They wear them on their fingers or slung around their necks; as earrings, broaches and paperweights. Channels use crystals to align themselves when going into trance; followers use them to capture the energy of the entity." (Quoted from Easy Reader: Reflections from The South Bay, January 22, 1987; Published weekly at 1233 Hermosa Avenue, P.O. Box 726, Hermosa Beach, CA 90254-0726.

Now maybe we could give Pat Robertson the benefit of the doubt and decide that maybe he just likes pretty rocks. But before we do, we should review some of his past statements regarding vibrational patterns and energy.

In 1984, before the days that I started video-taping the 700 Club, my son, my former secretary were all watching Pat Robertson's program. We were startled to hear Pat Robertson say that we were all like radio stations in that we threw out vibrations. If we were happy and thinking positive thoughts, he continued, we sent out positive vibrations. If we were, on the other hand, thinking negatively, we sent out bad vibrations. That is why, he said, we shudder around some people and like to be around others — it all had to do with the vibrations they were emitting as a result of their thought patterns.

My son, a budding stand-up comedian brought our house down when he asked everybody gathered, "am I AM or FM?"

Furthermore, in Robertson's 1985 book, BEYOND REASON, in a chapter entitled "Who Can Control the Forces of Nature?" he says:

"Perhaps the reason so few people see miracles in their lives is their ignorance of the way power is activated in the universe. God's power underlies all reality. The material world as we see it consists of atoms and subatomic particles, which we further learn are composed of energy in the form of electrons and neutrons. In other words, matter is merely a form of energy. The great paradox is that what we perceive as real and tangible is actually an illusion. The reality is energy; and behind energy is the spiritual power of God."

THE LIBERTY LOBBY CONNECTION

If I were struggling for words to describe SPOTLIGHT MAGAZINE, LIBERTY LOBBY, and their related operations, and wanted to do so in relatively polite terms, the very nicest thing I would be able to call them is "New Age". I have learned that their editor, Vincent Ryan has openly and ecstatically described his out-of-body experiences and belief in astral projection. He was active in Washington, D.C. holistic health circles, as well.

The reason I say "New Age" is the nicest thing I can say about them is that their founder, Willis Carto has been known to chair meetings with the Horst Wessel (Nazi marching song) playing in the background amidst a backdrop of swastikas adorning the walls. They are best known for their denials that the holocaust took place. Noontide Press (also a Willis Carto operation) appears to specialize in books about what a great guy Hitler was! Convicted members of The Order, an Aryan Nations offshoot implicated in the killing of Denver talk show host Alan Berg used a Noontide Press book for a handbook on how to stage guerilla warfare, according to the new book on the killing TALKED TO DEATH by Stephen Singular (1987). Recently, Noontide Press has added books by Ezra Pound (an old-time New Ager and Nazi-Fascist sympathizer), and, of course, Eustace Mullins.

SPOTLIGHT personnel such as Tricia Kattson, their legislative were becoming very concerned about my opposition to them. Particularly, they appeared to be so concerned because they have been attempting to give the impression they in the vanguard of opposition to the New World order in hopes of attracting those anti-New Age Movement activists to their camp — an even uglier division of the New Age Movement. Tricia Kattson denied to me that the SPOTLIGHT had ever denied the existence of the Holocaust and suggested that if I had evidence of that type, I had a duty to present it to her. Incredulous that somebody with their organization would deny a fact that obvious, I invited her to Pointe's booth at National Religious Broadcaster's to see evidence of ties between the New Age Movement and anti-Semitic organizations about the country. She asked for a time and I suggested an appointment for 4:00 p.m. on Monday, February 2, 1987. She asked if it would be alright if they sent a Mr. Cornelius Vanderbreggen instead. I said that would be fine. Just as I was leaving for lunch Mr. Vanderbreggen, a very courtly, fine-appearing elderly gentleman stopped by the booth and said he would be back to meet with me at 4:00 p.m. — he just wanted to introduce himself.

Truthfully, I forgot about the appointment and ran into friends from Kansas City, joining them for coffee, I did not return to the booth until 4:15 p.m. Cornelius Vanderbreggen was there waiting for me. After the usual pleasantries, which included showing me and Joe Carr (author of THE TWISTED CROSS who was also visiting POINTE'S BOOTH, he told me he was concerned about Pat Brooks and wanted to know what I knew about her. He quickly learned that I knew plenty. (I believe Mr. Vanderbreggen was "scoping me out" as THE SPOTLIGHT obviously supports Mrs. Pat Brooks, author of several anti-Semitic books which proclaim a belief in the content of the Theosophical circulated, spurious PROTOCOLS OF THE LEARNED ELDERS OF ZION and contain representations that the holocaust never occurred and claims that Moscow is governed from Tel Aviv! He wanted to know what I knew about the Identity Movement. (Again, SPOTLIGHT has given obvious support to Identity personnel and organizations, and Identity groups openly advertise in THE SPOTLIGHT. I asked Vanderbreggen's opinions on THE PROTOCOLS after telling him of the evidence that they were put into circulation by activists in the THEOSOPHICAL SOCIETY. I told him historian James Webb's opinion which was that there was some evidence that Madame Blavatsky (founder of the Theosophical Society) may have taken a personal role in their composition.

Vanderbreggen told me he believed the PROTOCOLS OF ZION were genuine and explained what had happened in the world over the past century — what he believed to be a Zionist/Jewish conspiracy!

He then began to play both what I call mind games and word games and I finally felt as though I had had enough. I decided that either he or I was going to have to leave Pointe's booth, and it wasn't going to be me because I had too much sensitive material there I did not wish to leave for his perusal. I was starting to stand up to ask him to please leave when I had an astounding experience, which caused me to change my mind.

I am not big on supernatural experience. But this day, I knowingly had the closest thing I have ever had to a full-fledged vision. Just as I started to rise to ask Vanderbreggen to leave our booth, I was staring at the color cover and pages — as though it were a large cardboard blowup of Pat Robertson's biography, SHOUT IT FROM THE HOUSETOPS. Simultaneous with that appearing to me, (I was wide awake at the time) Vanderbreggen said that he made repeated trips between Holland and the United States. I then immediately recalled a statement a Port Townsend, Washington minister had made to me a few days that he sure wished he could "learn more about that mysterious Dutchman who was supposed to have led Pat Robertson to the Lord." Immediately upon seeing the "blown-up" book, hearing Vanderbreggen's statement about his trips to Holland, and recalling the Port Townsend, Washington remark, I said to Mr. Vanderbreggen, "Your name is familiar to me." He said, "oh?" I continued, "I know your name from somewhere other than "SPOTLIGHT MAGAZINE" and Liberty Lobby."

Again, Mr. Vanderbreggen said "oh?"

I then asked him, "Are you, by any chance, mentioned in SHOUT IT FROM THE HOUSETOPS?" He very proudly replied, "Yes, I am." I said, "You're the Dutchman who led Pat Robertson to the Lord."

"Yes, I am" he replied, "but he lied about one thing — he said I was tall and handsome, but I'm not tall and handsome."

Joe Carr, who was sitting on the edge of the booth trying to look indifferent later said he wondered what was going on. "All at once," Joe said, "you retracted your claws and turned on the charm." Vanderbreggen knew exactly what was in Pat Robertson's book and was extremely proud of it, leaving me to believe that perhaps Pat Robertson's representation in that book that he had never seen Vanderbreggen after their joint experience at an InterVarsity camp in Canada where Vanderbreggen was teaching might not be completely accurate. I had read SHOUT IT FROM THE HOUSETOPS thoroughly in the past, but had never dwelt on Vanderbreggen's name, especially since Robertson said he had not seen him since he packed his bags to go west leaving that InterVarsity camp Vanderbreggen had suggested Robertson attend.

MICHIGAN VICTORIES

"Supporters of the Rev. Pat Robertson gained a controlling role in the Michigan Republican Party after dominating leadership elections Friday and Saturday at the state Republican convention in Lansing. ... George Bush failed to show the 45 to 50 percent strength claimed by his supporters last August. ... 'We are clearly in the driver's seat,' gloated David Walters, chairman of Robertson's Michigan operation." THE DETROIT NEWS, Sunday, Feb. 22, 1987

Soviet New Age activities

It was Russian mysticism that helped set the stage for the introduction of Communism to Russia. The Russian court was lulled to sleep by the antics of Russian mystic Rasputin. In the meantime, the Tsar failed to notice the serious social strife until it was too late to moderately appease it. This eventually led to the Soviet revolution and the death or banishment of nearly the entire Russian court. Like the court of Babylon of old, they failed to see the writing on the wall. It was Russian occultism that blinded them to the plain events of their time.

Once again, occultism is playing a serious role in the Soviet Union. Segments of the American government are greeting this development with delight, believing that it could play a serious role in American-Soviet detente and perhaps even the weakening of the Soviet Communist. Instead, this development could well signal "the beginning of the end." Russian New Age developments are part of the tightening noose developing around orthodox religious throats worldwide, as New Agers unite to "form a planet of peace."

Those of you who read my recent article on melanin, a substance that the New Agers believe could help "inoculate the world's people against warlike tendencies" will remember seeing the name Joseph Goldin. It was Goldin who made the statement on the August 5, 1984 New Age holiday, World War IV that "there is global precedence for what we want to do. We inoculated everybody in the world against smallpox and thus eradicated that disease planet wide. How much more important would it be for us to give somebody something that would eradicate war planet-wide?" It could well be that melanin will be the substance of the prophesied "mark of the beast." My doctor informs me that excess melanin causes melanoma — a deadly skin cancer.

In 1982 Jim Channon told a New York writer I spoke with that the First Earth Battalion and Task Force Delta were computer networked with officers behind the Iron Curtain. They were, he said, using the Esalen Institute of Big Sur, California as a conduit. It appears, in turn, that Goldin is a conduit Esalen is using to reach the Soviet government. OMNI MAGAZINE, itself an important New Age publication says of Esalen and Goldin:

"One reason for Esalen's success in getting candidates like Tellington-ones into Russia is an enigmatic individual named Joseph Goldin. When Hickman [of Esalen] met Goldin, a Soviet researcher, the latter was the scientific secretary for the Commission on the Complex Study of Man. ... Goldin had worked with a Bulgarian scientist [this must be Georgi Lozanov, referred to kindly by Denis Waitley and the founder of the Lozanov Learning Method] whose use of music, meditation and and sleep suggestion for accelerated learning has been copied worldwide. ... A U.S. diplomat calls Goldin 'the mystery man of Moscow' because of his uncanny ability to penetrate Moscow's stonewall bureaucracy. 'I am a neutrino,' Goldin explains. 'I have no weight or mass, so I can pass through walls.' In fact, Goldin is short and stocky and deals with bureaucratic obstacles more like a T-34 tank than a neutrino."

Now it appears that Joseph Goldin is active in another activity that closely parallels Revelation prophecy — the "SPACE BRIDGE" program.

SPACE BRIDGES

Goldin would like to see the earth inter-linked with a series of "space bridges." Of this project, OMNI Magazine says:

"Goldin's way to shake the earth is through a web of giant screen space-bridges linking peoples all over the world. Spacebridge stations would use all of the consciousness-raising techniques of the human potential movement. Instead of small groups of people meditating for peace, Goldin envisions millions meditating together via satellite simulcasts, instead of eight-to ten-person encounter groups. Golden talks about a planet-size encounter group united by space-based technology." (continued in April, 1987 MONITOR)

UPDATE IN BRIEF

draws 5,000

Interest in the New Age Movement has "broken loose" so to speak in Seattle. Coordinators and friends

Angie Schiermeyer, Marie Fisher, Tom Acheson and others have done a herculean task in seeing that the Seattle area was informed and finally their efforts have borne fruit. Five thousand spectators tried to jam a hall where a New Ager challenged me to a public debate. This took place on the evening of January 22, 1987, the same week as the Shirley MacLaine mini-series. All local media were in attendance, including all Seattle television stations and associated press reporter. Even the New Age paper conceded we had won the debate and offered excuses why that was so. We are encouraged! As a result of the widespread public response to that debate, I was asked to take part in a program that Seattle station KOMO was doing on the New Age Movement on February 15, 1982. There, I was confronted with an obvious demonic apparition — Penny Torres of Southern California channeling an "entity" calling itself "MAFU." Nearly 1000 jammed this ticket-only event. KOMO rented the University of Washington hall for the occasion because of the overwhelming interest in the subject. Now, thanks to God, nearly everybody in Seattle knows the issues on the New Age Movement and why it is incompatible with orthodox Christianity.

All of this came up so fast — both the debate and the KOMO appearance that it did not appear on my itinerary. The travel has not helped me get the newsletters out in a timely fashion either! I am going to have to invest in a laptop computer that is truly portable to help remedy these deficiencies as it looks as though my road schedule will not slow down in the appreciable future, God willing!

MARILYN FERGUSON

Years ago, anti-Communist activist Fred Schwartz wrote a book which I never read, but the title intrigued and stuck with me. It was called YOU CAN TRUST A COMMUNIST TO BE A COMMUNIST. Evidently, you can trust a non-repentant New Ager to be a New Ager as well. I have learned a valuable lesson — and I am thankful that I never went to Marilyn Ferguson's house alone. I have seen Marilyn four times in my life: The first was when I went with my secretary to watch her speak at Detroit's Unity Temple shortly after I returned from taping my first Southwest Radio Church series in June 1982. We exchanged some relatively harsh words that evening and she followed up the occasion by surprising me with a fairly conciliatory letter. The second occasion was initiated by her then administrative assistant Anita Storey. That took place, I believe, when she spoke in Windsor in spring, 1984. A great deal of controversy had surrounded her visit and the WINDSOR STAR had withdrawn its sponsorship of her tour after one of its reporters spoke with me. Ten other prominent sponsors remained for her, including the Archdiocese of Windsor, but the damage was done as CBC invited me to do an interview on Marilyn Ferguson and the New Age Movement the morning of the day she was to speak. As I was leaving to go hear her, I was surprised to receive a telephone call from her secretary, asking if I would agree to meet with Marilyn while she was in the Detroit - Windsor metropolitan area.

I did agree to the meeting and drove to the 8:30 breakfast meeting held in the restaurant of her hotel, the Windsor Hilton. The waitress serving our table surprised both of us by telling us that she had read and enjoyed THE HIDDEN DANGERS OF THE RAINBOW. I gained interesting insights into the New Age mindset during that meeting. There was no animosity displayed by either at that meeting, but I extended the same concern to her that I do to all in the New Age Movement — I told her that if she knew the half of what she was really into, she would bolt in horror. She expressed dismay and shock at a great deal of facts I shared with her. She had been given gorgeous roses at the event the evening before, and insisted on leaving them with me. I accepted the gift in the spirit in which it was given.

The next time I was to hear from Ms. Ferguson's staff occurred in early August, 1984. I was home recovering from a painful root canal. On Friday afternoon, August 3, 1984, my phone rang. It was Marilyn Ferguson's secretary stating that the New Age planned "planetary holiday World War IV" would be celebrated at Marilyn Ferguson's house in Los Angeles on Sunday, August 5th. Would I care to attend? She further told me that many of the personalities I had written about would be there and I could meet them personally. I told Ms. Storey that it was awfully short notice. I would confer with my publisher and get back to them. Thereafter, I laid out my little fleece for the Lord which was that if I had to pay nothing I would consider it a sign that He wanted me there. I called Huntington House and spoke to Bill Keith, President. He called me back, excitedly, and said that both he and co-owner Richard Trosclair thought it terribly important that I be there and they would be happy to cover my expenses and pre-pay my airline ticket. They made flight arrangements for me to leave Saturday afternoon, the following day on Republic airlines. I thereupon called co-researchers, San Jose resident Sylvia Beadleston and Betty Willman of Palos Verdes, California, a Los Angeles suburb. Both agreed to attend the event with me and Betty and David Willman graciously housed Sylvia and I for the weekend. The afternoon of August 5th was educational to say the least. Still suffering from the root canal, I nearly forgot the pain when I encountered a Campus Crusade for Christ activist who was directed by Marilyn Ferguson to show me about her premises. He told me that he believed Buddha and Lao Tzu were "great teachers" but, of course, Jesus was the greatest! I told him that with all due respect, I believed the Apostle Paul was a little more on the money when he said that those who worshipped idols worshipped devils! The same man told me when I complained of jet lag that there were hypnosis tapes I could buy and listen to on the plane that would eliminate that problem.

The third (and last) time I saw Marilyn Ferguson, I was visiting Marilyn Bender, a Christian friend in Orange County, California. I went there to collect information on the shepherding and discipleship movements and Christian networking with the Moonies in Washington, D.C. Because Marilyn Ferguson had made several telephone calls to me to make inquiries after she read my second book, I concluded she was legitimately searching for the truth. Marilyn Bender and I decided to call her while I was in her local area. To our surprise, she invited the two of us over to spend an afternoon with she and her family. That event was recounted in the last MONITOR. Their behavior was very cordial. I took Hal Lindsay's newest book, COMBAT FAITH, which discusses the New Age Movement to Marilyn Ferguson as a "hostess gift." Marilyn and her husband, Dr. Raymond Gottlieb asked Marilyn Bender how she became a Christian and both appeared to be very moved as she gave her testimony. I spent a great deal of time informing Marilyn and her husband (who is Jewish) about anti-semitic aspects of the New Age Movement. They appeared to be seriously listening.

Now for the New Age "double-whammy". I was called by friends while I was recently speaking in Phoenix, Arizona and told I should pick up the newest MAGICAL BLEND magazine. In an article entitled "MARILYN FERGUSON: A Tour de Force", I learned that I had done events with Marilyn in Los Angeles, had a dinner with her (there was no such dinner) and evidently was one of her closest buddies. I also learned something that she had previously denied to me — that she listens to "voices." She had expressed concern to me about other activists in the New Age Movement who did this on the day that Marilyn Bender and I were there. I called Marilyn Ferguson upon my return from Phoenix and she tells me she was seriously misquoted — the portion where she said "she was extremely affectionate," she said she had told the interviewer that she had said their parrot "Gulliver" was extremely affectionate to me. That would have been a true statement — their parrot did not want to leave my shoulder, but many animals behave that way with me — I sometimes seem to have better luck with animals than people! Supposedly, Marilyn Ferguson is writing MAGICAL BLEND magazine a letter to make them retract what she says are wrong quotes. I don't know what the truth is, but I do know that I have never felt such white-hot anger as I felt when I read the foregoing passages. I am happy I did not go to Marilyn Ferguson's home without Christian witnesses, and I suggest that if you meet with New Agers, you do the same, until such time as they do renounce and turn their back on the movement. Before people break with the New Age Movement they are under the control of what the Bible calls "seducing spirits" and you may rest assured those spirits will not be ethical, nor can the people be who are listening to them:

"The person who cultivates this inner-listening has the courage and the discipline to keep doing what the inner voices say to do, even if it seems whacky.

Marilyn Ferguson reportedly also told the interviewer:

"the secret to success is attention to this inner voice. 'There is not, she says emphatically, 'some external rule out there."

Now for the part of the article that upset me the most and the one that Marilyn Ferguson claims is a misquote:

"In conversation, Ferguson mentions several meetings with Constance Cumbey 'who had written a book called THE HIDDEN DANGERS OF THE RAINBOW. It's a New Age is Anti-Christ book. And I thought, wait a minute, we can't really look like this, so I asked her to breakfast. Later she autographed a book for me, and asked me to autograph her copy of THE AQUARIAN CONSPIRACY. [That part is true — I did give her an autographed copy of THE HIDDEN DANGERS OF THE RAINBOW — I was hoping she would read it and take it to heart] Later we did an event in Los Angeles together. [That is a complete fabrication, unless she is referring to the "World War IV event which I was invited to observe and did observe for approximately two hours with two other Christian observers. In no way could that be characterized as 'an event we did together.'"]

"Finally, I invited this lady who had written a book saying that the New Age is dangerous to dinner. [This is a total fabrication, if she is being quoted accurately!] She came and she had a good time. [That is an even bigger lie! — I have never had dinner with Marilyn Ferguson and had not seen her since the July, 1984 event at which time I chatted with her for approximately five minutes.] About a month later she came to our house and stayed for about five hours and was extremely affectionate. [Marilyn Bender and I did go to Marilyn Ferguson's house at her invitation in August, 1986.] I placed a telephone call to Marilyn Ferguson while I was in the Los Angeles area — for the first time since fall of 1984 and she invited us to her home for Sunday afternoon. Our discussion was mainly a sober one, dealing with problems in the New Age Movement — particularly with those mindlessly listening to 'external voices!' My husband said that instead of calling her Constance Cumbey, we should call her Constance Comfy. You see, we realized in our search for the common ground [this is a common New Age mindset — they believe good and evil can be blended] that we agreed with her in a lot of what she was saying [this is true, they appeared to be extremely agreeable that day — one would have almost thought they were closet fundamentalists]. She thinks New Age people are really nice, about the sweetest people in the world. [To the contrary, I told her that if she knew much of what I knew, particularly about New Age influences in the Identity Movement, she would bolt in horror — although many New Agers do appear to be very sweet, albeit misguided people]. What scares her is the 'true believer,' the mindless follower of some doctrine.

[This is true, but Marilyn Ferguson assured me she was not one of those — she told me those listening to 'voices' scared her too — now I find out she herself listens to such voices!] "Well, I'm concerned about that too. When these things get manifested out there in the name of the movement and the principles we support, it's embarrassing"

Marilyn Ferguson went on in that interview to attack Robert Lindsey's monumental article appearing in the NEW YORK TIMES on September 29, 1986 as "dumb".

Beware of Greeks — and New Agers — bearing gifts! I should have known better. You can profit from my example. And, I am thankful that I did not go without witnesses!

CIRCULATION MANAGER WANTED FOR MONITOR

We are seeking somebody willing to work on a commission basis who will seek to build the circulation of the MONITOR. I have a potential mailing list of several thousands of people who have written to me. They need computer input, and solicitation. Somebody who has had experience working with varied mailing lists and is willing to undertake this on a part-time basis would also be valued. If you feel you might be interested, please submit your resume' to me c/o Pointe Publishers at the above address.
